There is no charge to attend these events and lunch will be provided for delegates.

Wax Digital's leading Source-to-Pay solution helps world-class organisations maximise savings and refine purchase efficiencies throughout the whole procurement lifecycle; powering business-critical purchasing and spend management processes for hundreds of thousands of users.

Sapphire is now bringing these on-demand solutions to the mid market. With Wax Digital's intuitive Web3 suite and Sapphire's unprecedented experience implementing financial and business management solutions to this market, Sapphire offers the mid-market the skills and expertise needed to advise in this area like no other.

Sapphire's source-to-pay master-classes will provide attendees with the knowledge needed to put together a procurement strategy that will help cut spend and maximise savings throughout their organisation.

Topics at these informative morning sessions will include:

- Maximising savings through eSourcing (source-to-pay)
- Electronic Auctioning & Tendering
- Contract management
- P2P - streamlining the procurement process
- The most powerful and flexible workflow that fits your business
- Get the suppliers to do the hard work through the unique Web3Supplier Portal
- Taking the paper out of the equation
- Enterprise Service Bus – the gateway to your finance system
- The power and benefits of a truly hosted solution

Implementing an eProcurement system can lead to huge cost savings, but getting the specification right is paramount. Sapphire will guide delegates through the process from selection to savings, identifying the pitfalls that could mean the difference between success and failure. Attendees will also learn how to calculate their eProcurement returns and maximise their return on investment.
