Ease of Use

Procurement One is designed to reach every user in an organisation to include them in the purchasing process. Most staff will have little experience of using business software so Procurement One is intuitive, simple and can be introduced very quickly and cost-effectively.

Browser-based software is designed to be self-evident and Procurement One training sessions can be as little as 30 minutes.

Administration and maintenance of Procurement One also take place in the browser and helps keep the cost to a minimum.

Rapid ROI

Procurement One is priced to be affordable. It is designed to be quickly deployed. You can spend more time realising savings in negotiations with your suppliers and training your staff on how to buy better and less time grappling with software. We have a range of templates and implementation tools to speed the process of deploying Procurement One to the point of need throughout your organisation. Typical return on investment for Procurement One can be realised within 6 months. Procurement One offers enterprise functionality to SAP Business One customers at an affordable price point.

Plan for Growth

Procurement One is ready to help users exploit the steady move towards recovery and growth. Organisations that have become lean, highly automated and have maximised the potential of their spending power will be the ones that are most competitive in the emerging growth markets. Procurement One is providing competitive edge. Plan for growth by getting to grips with your spending. Change your buying culture from top to bottom and then enforce it with Procurement One.

Procurement One is the one choice for organisation-wide purchasing for SAP Business One.
